The South would rather be under a landslide with Judge Parker than have a cabin seat on Roosevelt's "General Slocum."

With the cotton boll weevil working the South on one side and President Roosevelt the other, Dixie is expected to sit up straight.

It might have been worse. President Roosevelt might have neglected to promise that he would not be a candidate for another term.

It is said that women who are fond of horse shows are hard to manage at home We guess it is because it inclines them to take the bit in their teeth

The Republican party's enblematic animal is an elephant but it ought to be a hog, as that party in several states elected all the congressmen.

The Hon. David B. Hill had a right to retire gracefully from politics, but he had no right to take the Democratic party with him as a spectacular side line.

In New York a girl has been arrested for begging. Yet Chairman Cortelyou worked both sides of Wall Street and nobody put the coppers onto him.

The South is the Port Arthur of the Democratic party. We will hold the fort for four years and longer, confident that time will add recruits from the Northern and Western States.

Recruits for the army and navy must pass a rigid physical examination, and it is thus that the best men in the country are marked for slaughter in case of war. War, therefore, is the worst destroyer of the human race.

A clergyman in Boston contended in a sermon that divorce is a necessity. The New York man who paid out $25,000 in lawyer's fees and trial expenses to get a separation considers divorce a luxury of the High Price Shaw order.

A Southern exchange, we forget which one, says? "Vardeman calls Roosevelt a "spasm." Now let's have Roosevelt's opinion of Vardeman and close the polls." If a partisan Congress cuts down Southern representation, lots of Southerners now opposed to the Vardeman educational idea will fly to, it in a spirit of retaliation if nothing else.

Says the sportive Washington Post: "It is proposed to organize clubs for the purpose of getting the Democrats together. The Democrats ought to try to get together once without clubs." Looking up from under the landslide down this way, it looks like a hand-out of spades would meet present emergencies.

The Washington Post remarks: "There is no room in the Democratic party for plutocratic Democrats", says editor Hearst. We were under the impression that the Democratic party had more room than anything else just at this time." Let the poor plutocrat stay in, there isn't enough of us left to take anything away from him.

LOCAL DOTS.

— To-day cars will be run to the beach every hour from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.

— The Piano Club has decided to have its concert on the evening of November 30th.

— British steamer "Petunia," 1,093 tons, Capt. Frankland, sailed 18th from Villa Real to Wilmington.

— A reliable colored man who can give good references can find employment by applying at the STAR office.

— Raleigh is suffering from the operations of a false fire alarm fiend for whom the police are making a diligent search.

— The afternoon meeting for men at the Y. M. C. A. at 5 o'clock to-day will be addressed by the Rev. C. W. Kegley, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church.

— Two diphtheria quarantines were established yesterday—Ophelia Burns, colored, seven years old, 609 MacRae street, and Mrs. Fennell, 24 years of age, 305 South Front street.

— The Clyde Liner Carib, which was delayed this week on account of the storm, arrived up last night from Georgetown and will sail to-day or to-morow for New York.

— "Given Away" is the simple and rather puzzling announcement made in an advertisement in another column. Can you guess what it is, where it is and when it is? Watch the advertisement.

— Property owners at the northern intersections of Front and Market streets have notified the Mayor that they desire to avail themselves of the city's offer to lay substantial brick sidewalk around those corners.

— James Lewis, a well known colored brick mason of this city, died Friday morning at his home on Swann, between Seventh and Eighth streets, aged about 73 years. He was well liked by all of both races who knew him.

The Bargain Week sale of the Polvogt Co's. last week was a drawing card for them. Their store was crowded the entire week. You will read from their advertisement in this issue that they will continue their sale for three days of this week. Many new and attractive bargains will be displayed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Their millinery department will offer a reduction of one-fourth off the regular price on all trimmed hats. Rather than move so much merchandise to their new building they offer many attractive bargains in every department. Those who have not visited the Polvogt Co. during the sale last week will do well to do so the next three days.

RIFLED CIRCUS SAFE.

Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' Treasury Robbed of $30,000 at Tarboro, N. C.

NEGRO "CROOK" ARRESTED.

Money Had Been Reserved to Pay Employes Upon Close of Season—Guard Under Arrest—Sale of Shows Postponed Until Later.

[Special Star Telegram.]

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 19, 1904.—The safe in the ticket wagon of Forepaugh and Sells Bro.s' circus was robbed of over $30,000 early this morning. The money had been reserved to pay off the employes after disbanding to-night. A guard had been placed over the safe but is said to have left his post after the circus train arrived here this morning, when it is thought the safe was rifled. Warrants were immediately served and about twenty employes of the shows were arrested but all except the guard were discharged because of insufficient evidence. Detectives have been put on the case.

The management has decided to postpose the sale of the circus until after they have gone into Winter quarters.

All of the animals, paraphernalia etc., will be shipped in special trains to Columbus, Ohio, and the hundreds of employes will scatter in various sections.

On account of the robbery, the show will not disband before probably next week. Mr. Sells believes the guilty party will be apprehended before moving from Tarboro.

A negro charged with stealing money from another negro was arrested and committed to jail this morning. Large denominations of money and various toilet articles were found on his person. He is evidently a "crook".

The following Associated Press telegram was received last night:

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 19.—The pay wagon of Forepaugh & Sells Brothers' circus was robbed of $30,000 this morning at Tarboro, N. C. Every effort is being made by the circus people and the limited police authorities of the town to apprehend the robbers and several arrests have been made, but no trace of the missing fortune has yet been found.

The circus was playing in Greenville, N. C., yesterday and arrived in Tarboro this morning in three sections over the Atlantic Coast Line. The first section arrived at 12:30, the second at 1 o'clock and the third at 3 o'clock.

The pay-wagon had been broken into and robbed during transit or shortly after it arrived at Tarboro. The robbery was discovered shortly after 5 o'clock in the morning and efforts were at once made to capture the thieves. Every man connected with the show was searched and put under surveillance. Several were locked up on suspicion and some of these, seven or eight, have been released.

Police Chief Walter Johnson, of Tarboro, in a conversation over telephone with the Associated Press correspondent to-night says:

"We have no clue to the robbers, but suspect the deed was done by some one connected with the show who is familiar with the manner the cash was handled and who had made their plans complete before undertak to get the money."

Loss Reported in Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., NOV. 19.—A telegram received this afternoon by Mrs. Lewis Sells, of Columbus, confirms the story of the robbery of the Forepaugh Sells circus at Tarboro, N. C. The amount secured by the robbers who held up the ticket wagon was $30,000. No details of the robbery are given in the telegram. Mrs. Sells is the wife of Lewis Sells, one of the owners of the show, and the message received by her asked that arrangements be made through a Columbus bank to provide money to pay off the employes of the circus, which closes the season at Tarboro to-night. The large amount of money secured by the robbers is accounted for by the fact that the receipts had been held for several days to pay off the men.

Reported in Wilmington.

The first information of the robbery reached Wilmington yesterday in a telegram to Chief of Police Furlong, asking him to look out for the robber, should he come this way. The telegram is as follows:

TARBORO, N. C., Nov. 19, 1904.
Chief of Police, Wilmington, N C.:
Forepaugh & Sells ticket wagon robbed this A. M. of $35,000 in currency by unknown parties. Liberal reward offered for capture of parties and recovery of money.
DAN S. LEHON,
Forepaugh & Sells.

Chief Furlong and Capt. Robert Green, city detective, are on the lookout for suspicious characters, but last night had met with no success. Many Wilmington people were disposed to treat the story at first as a hoax, but from the press telegrams received last night, the affair looks like anything else but a hoax.

$2,500 Reward Offered.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 19.—A special from Tarboro says $2,500 reward is offered for the apprehension of the person or persons who robbed the Forepaugh Sells' pay wagon.

COAT OFF AFTER OFFICER.

Two Sailors Fought in Front of Postoffice and a Third, Who Interfered, Was Pinched Himself.

Pulling off his coat, throwing it on the sidewalk and declaring himself the best man on this side of the broad Atlantic, John Dwyer, a discharged sailor from the British steamer "Fernfield," now loading cotton at the compress here, made a vicious attack upon Policeman T. G. Evans last night about 11 o'clock in front of the postoffice. The sailor's wrath, kindled by an unreasonable amount of mean liquor, had been fanned into a flame when he saw the officer arrest two of his shipmates who had just engaged in a lively fisticuff on the same prominent thoroughfare and who made good their escape as the result of the third man's interference.

The officer had been engaged for some time in watching a party of eight or ten of the sailor men, who were evidently taking all the advantage of a Saturday night shore leave. He watched not in vain, for very soon the ranks of the party opened and revealed two of the men in about as lively a fisticuff as one generally sees. Mr. Evans ran into the bunch as speedily as possible and arrested the two belligerents. Then it was Dwyer divested himself of his outer raiment, proclaimed his pugilistic qualities and went in to help his ship mates. He butted the officer with all the might he could command, took of hold his club and otherwise hampered the officer, compelling the release of the two original fighters, who scampered off into the darkness, very much sobered up by the presence of the officer. Dwyer was made to put on his coat and he was sent up to the police station where a charge of interfering with an officer was lodged against him. He will be tried by the Mayor to-morrow morning. The officer blew his whistle for assistance during the encounter but those who came were too late.

THE DEVOTION OF FORTY HOURS.

Impressive Services at St. Thomas' To-day, To-morrow and Tuesday.

As announced in yesterday's issue the devotion of forty hours, commemorating the period of our Lord's body in the tomb, will begin at 10.30 Mass to-day in St. Thomas' church. Bishop Haid will preach at this service; also in the evening at 7.45. At the evening service the choir will render select music from Lejeal's Vespers, including Dixit Dominus, Beatus Vir, and Magnificat. "O! Salutaris", solo by Mrs. E. K. Bryan, and "Tantum Ergo", by duo and chorus, will also be rendered.

Monday the High Mass, pro pace will be at 10.30, with sermon, Monday evening the service will be at 8 o'clock, with sermon by Bishop Haid.

Tuesday morning Mass will be celebrated at 10 30, after which the sacrament of confirmation will be administered by the Bishop. The devotions will close Tuesday at 8 P. M., with the singing of Litany and sermon by the Bishop. Father Marlop, of Fayetteville, will arrive to-day to take part in the service.

IN POLICE REALMS YESTERDAY.

Young Man Robbed Near Hilton Disappeared—Japanese Before His Honor.

Walter Farmer, the young man from Greene county who was knocked down and robbed near Hilton Friday afternoon, failed to put in his appearance before the Mayor yesterday and prosecute the charge against his assailant, Haman Blocker. The case was continued until Monday and in the meantime the police are making a search for Farmer. If necessary, Chief Furlong says he will issue a subpoena to Greene county for the young man and compel his appearance as a witness here. Blocker is still in the station house.

In the police court yesterday, the Japanese steward aboard the British barque "Musselcrag," was charged with striking a sailor. The son of the fantastic kingdom was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and was let off with the costs.

Mr. Tom Moore to Wed.

Invitations reading as follows have been received by friends in this city: "Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jerome Stockard invite you to the marriage of their daughter Lelia to Mr. Tom Moore, Wednesday afternoon, December the seventh, nineteen hundred and four, at 3 o'clock, 701 Halifax street, Raleigh, North Carolina." Miss Stockard was formerly connected with the Wilmington graded schools and Mr. Moore, a native of Fayetteville, is a popular young employee of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city.

Jailed for False Pretence.

Henry Clark, colored, was placed in jail yesterday but subsequently gave $50 bond to appear in Justice Fowler's court Tuesday at 3 o'clock and answer a charge of false pretence brought by Mr. J. D. Sidbury, who alleges that Clark contracted to dip turpentine for him on Island Creek, received his money in advance and then refused to work. Herbert McClammy, Esq., appears for the prosecution.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. Under a new system we have adopted we are confident a much more satisfactory city delivery will result provided subscribers will report, either in person or by postal card, every case of negligence on the part of carriers.

BROKE ROBESON JAIL

Wholesale Delivery of Prisoners at Lumberton, N. C., Early Yesterday Morning.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.

White Man Guilty of Criminal Assault and Execution Day Set for January. Three Escapes Returned to the Jail by Sheriff McLeod.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

LUMBERTON, Nov. 19.—There was a jail delivery here last night by which seven prisoners made their escape. The escape was effected by cutting bars from the windows, and making ropes of blankets. A small saw was used, but how it was procured is a mystery. Court has been in session all the week and six of the escaped negroes had been sentenced to the roads for terms ranging from six to eighteen months. As soon as the escape was discovered Sheriff McLeod and Deputy Barker lost no time in pursuing them. Three of them—one for the penitentiary and two for the road—have been captured, and the remaining four are being pursued. Sheriff cLeod has offered a reward of $25 for each one of them.

C. E. Hayes, a white man, has been convicted of rape, and was to-day sentenced to be hanged on January 18th.

Judge Ward has already won the admiration of all who had occasion to attend court. Words of praise are heard on all sides.

(By Associated Press.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 19.—Seven prisoners escaped from the county jail at Lumberton early this morning by cutting the bars of the cage in which they were confined, and the bars of the other window with a saw. They then tore up a blanket and let themselves down to the ground. Six were negroes and one a white boy. Three have been captured and diligent search is being made for the others. Court was in session at the time of the escape.

E. C. Hayes, white, was to day convicted at Lumberton of a criminal assault on the person of Miss Mary Inman, eighteen years old. He was sentenced to hang on January 18th.

THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

Meets Next Year at Red Springs—Matter from Wilmington Presbytery.

Wilmington pastors and laymen who attended the 91st annual sessions of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina have returned from Durham. Red Springs, Robeson county, was chosen as the next place of meeting. The Presbyterian College is located at that place and it is a center of Presbyterian work. The next session will meet on October 31st. Concord, Newbern, Reidsville and Red Springs asked for the next session of the Synod.

The sessions of the Synod came to a close Friday evening. The Durham Herald in its report of the proceedings has the following:

"From the Wilmington Presbytery came up during the session a matter that had to be decided by the Synod. This was a technical matter in regard to the proper interpretation of the Presbyterian laws touching the matter of admitting negroes as members of the Synod without designating a specific church. The Synod appointed a committee to consider the matter and the report of the Synod was adopted. The other side appealed to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church. This meeting will be held at Fort Worth, Texas, next Spring."

ELMER HINNANT IS DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday at Home of His Father-in-Law in Sampson County.

A telegram yesterday to Mrs. J. A. Miller, of this city, announced the death of her brother-in law, Mr. J. Elmer Hinnant, at the home of his father-in-law, Capt. J. J. Newsome, at Thomas, Sampson county, N. C. Mr. Hinnant formerly lived in Wilmington and conducted a business here. He was well known and popular in Wilmington and the news of his death will be received with sincere regret by many.

Mr. Hinnant was 34 years of age and his death was the result of a second stroke of paralysis, the first having been suffered about two months ago. Deceased leaves a wife and four children, Elmer Jr., Montrose, Isabelle and Bessie, aged from three to eight years of age. The funeral will be conducted to-day.

Inland Water Way.

Columbia Record: "Mr. E. B. Taylor, of this city, chairman of the committee on inland water route of the chamber of commerce, left yesterday for a visit to the various cities who will send delegates to the convention to be held here on December 28th. The convention will be composed of delegates from cities and commercial bodies on the South Atlantic coast Savannah, Charleston, Georgetown, Wilmington, Newbern, Norfolk and Baltimore are expected to send delegations from their trade bodies and from their city councils. Mr. Taylor will visit the entire Southern territory to be benefitted by the improvement, with a view to securing a large attendance at the convention."

The Wilmington Symphony Orchestra has been reorganized under the management and leadership of the able violinist, Prof. C. C. Brannon, who will drill this organization to the eminent satisfaction of all who may give their work into its hands. Burned, 102 Years Old.

Fayetteville Observer: "Old Aunt Polly McNeill was perhaps fatally burned at her little home in the rear of the Dobbin House, on upper Hay street, Wednesday night. She was building a fire, when the flames caught her clothing, and before her screams attracted the attention of neighbors she was so badly burned that the physicians say she cannot live. Aunt Polly was born in 1802, and has been in the McNeill family almost all of her life. She was a servant of Rev. James McNeill, colonel of the Fifth N. C. cavalry, and who was killed near Petersburg just before the war ended."

Fayetteville Bondholders.

Fayetteville Observer: "Some of our citizens, who hold a portion of the bonds issued by the Fayetteville and Wilmington Steamboat Company, filed a petition in the Federal Court at Raleigh on Tuesday asking to be allowed to intervene and defend the libels against the "City of Fayetteville." Judge Purnell made an order granting the same, allowing the petitioners ten days to file their answer. Messrs. N. A. Sinclair, Robinson & Shaw and R. H. Dye represent the bondholders."

THANKSGIVING!

If the Thanksgiving dinner is well dressed surely the diner ought to be.

A man may be just as thankful in his old clothes as in new ones, but he doesn't look it.

How about one of our handsome $10, $15 or $20 Suits, or one of our elegant $13, $15 or $18 Overcoats for Thanksgiving?

Perhaps it's a new Hat, a new Tie, Gloves, or something else in Haberdashery you're wanting.

The best of everything in Men's wear is here, and Thanksgiving is a splendid time to appear in something new.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, NOV. 20.

IMPERIAL CENSORSHIP.

Miguel Nicadao, a young Filipino student in the Illinois State Normal University, at Bloomington, has been reprimanded by the War Department for writing an article attacking the Friars and the methods of the Catholic church in the Philippines. The article appeared in "The Vidette," a student publication at the university, and was widely copied by the Illinois papers. The Rev. Father J. J. Burke, of St. Patrick's church, at Bloomington, objected to the article and took up the matter with the War Department, with the result that the young Filipino was raked over the coals.

The question is not whether the young Filipino was indiscreet and displayed bad taste and lack of judgment in what he wrote. The question is not whether he deserved a calling down, but millions of people in this country will wonder where the War Department or any other department got the authority to criticise the opinion of an individual. It is a personal privilege that any man in this country has to write approvingly or critically about anything, even about the President and the government. If there is to be censorship of an individual why not censorship of the press and the book writers?

The whole thing is a little curious. The Filipino is not a citizen of the United States, and yet it looks awkward for a Republic to have subjects, though the War Department evidently views the Filipino student in that light. If the Filipino is neither a citizen or subject of the United States, what has the War Department got to do with his opinions one way or another? If he is a citizen of the Philippines, it looks like his reprimand should have come from the Philippine government. Yet it is claimed that the right of free speech holds sway in the Philippines. If it does, what right would the Philippine authorities have to censure one of its citizens for writing done in a foreign country?

If the War Department were to censure an American writer for a similar offense it would be told to go to Mephisto. The Filipino can do the same thing, and who could punish him and under what law in a land of free speech?

The fact is that the Filipino cannot be punished under the law, and it is nonsense for the United States government to assume to reprimand him, except to please somebody by an act with which it has nothing more to do than a Billy goat.

The naughty Filipino, however, may have a great idea of our boast of free speech, although, if he knows it, he could go scot free if he were to get gay and even write a book on the same subject for which he was called to time by the big War Department.

The subject is one which calls for festive feelings instead of serious consideration. It might get serious though, if any Government Department insists on its right to censure individuals and the press, and laws are passed authorizing such censorship. That, however, is a far cry.

Have we got an imperial censorship?

NEWSPAPER IN COLUMBUS.

The STAR has received the initial copy of the Columbus County Trucker's Reporter, the publication of which began at Vineland, on Thursday. It is published by the Columbus County Truckers' Reporter Company, and Mr. H. P. Havenor, an experienced newspaper man, is editor and manager. The paper is a seven column folio, is neat typographically, bright and newsy, and well edited. It is a county newspaper and will devote special attention to the trucking and industrial development of Columbus county. The newspaper has our best wishes for its success.

SQUALLY TIMES IN COLORADO.

Out in Colorado, the abiding place of anarchy and monarchistic methods and absolutism, the Republican Supreme Court is endeavoring to set aside the Democratic victory for governor. There is talk of jailing Democratic kickers by the Republicans, and Democratic threats of blowing up the State House, assassinating Gov. Peabody if he attempts to hold the governorship, and all that.

It looks like it is up to Congress to investigate whether Colorado has a Republican form of government, but it is claimed that the Federal government has no power to do so.

The Republicans appear to be as much divided on the tariff as alleged Democrats.

SOME FLITTING ROT.

A good deal of rot is going the rounds of the press about the South's declaring its political independence of the Northern and Western wings of the party. Of course, it is all nonsence but some Northern papers take it seriously.

The time was when the South was glad to have the Northern Democracy and Independents to come to the rescue, and the badly digested editorials which pass current for the real stuff now is no indication that the Southern Democracy as a whole is not grateful for the elbow touch of Northern Democrats, many of whom are more fundamentally Democrats than some of our Southern howlers whose noggins are stuffed full of socialism and paternalism while they kon't know it.

There is no occasion for the South to further alienate itself from its Northern friends, and, of course, there is no serious movement along that line, for the South will keep its shirt on and await issues that the next four years will bring to the front, calling for its co-operation with similar political sentiment and convictions in the North. That is what we will do, too, flop-doodle editorials to the contrary notwithstanding.

The New York World, the New York Times and other Independent and Democratic newspapers in the North are wasting time in seriously taking note of some of the sore-head idleisms emanating from some Southern newspapers. The South is going ahead with its business and is neither crawfishing, flinching or alarmed. The political hash up to date is settled, and Dixie will wait for the 19 8 developments. All talk of the South's further isolating itself from either the respect or cooperation of its friends in the North is merely flitting rot.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Laurier, Roosevelt and Diaz can congratulate each other as the heads of the Canuck, Yankee and Greaser nations.—Houston (Tex.) Post.

—— If the Republicans take their Presidential candidate from a doubtful State next time, some Southern man will probably be picked.—Washington Post.

—— A Chicago paper contends that there are worse poets than Alfred Austin. It is time to let up on Commissioner Ware, since he has resigned.—Washington Post.

—— "Jake" Riis, the President's Boswell, exclaims with reference to the election, "I am so happy that I don't care what happens!" The Nashville Banner says that "the South don't give a d——." The Banner and Mr. Riis seem to agree to a certain extent.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

—— The Chicago Bar Association is protesting against the appointment of Senator Hopkins' son to be a master in chancery of the Federal Court, because he is only 26 years old and has just been admitted to the bar. The situation is going to become serious if a senator's son is to be deprived of special privileges. —Washington Post.

—— Secret service men and State officers have been warned to look out for a band of safe crackers that seem to be headed this way. A number of office in North Carolina in the smaller towns have been robbed and the work looks like another organized band—something like the one broken up a couple of years ago —is preparing to go through this part of the country. Special notices have been sent all fourth class postoffices.—Columbia Record.

— The Gus B. Hill stock company has been organized at Statesville backed by local capital. Mr. Hill went there some weeks ago and trained local talent for the presentation of Marjorie, and since then he has been organizing this company. It will be composed of 14 people, eight of whom have already been engaged and one expected the first of next week. Rehearsals will begin this week and the company expects to begin a three-nights engagement the 28th instant at the Statesville Opera House. From Statesville they will go to Asheville and other points South. It is said they will carry about a carload of scenery.

THOMAS A. EDISON, the inventor, in mapping out the problems of the future, gives first place to the necessity of fighting the bacteria which give us our diseases. Next to the actual bacteria of disease, the mosquitos and flies are the most dangerous enemies of man. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria, yellow fever, and other fatal troubles. The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid, cholera and other plagues of the human race.

Dr. Pierce, the eminent physician of Buffalo, N. Y., says, "If each person will consider his system as an army of men which he controls as a general, and will see to its proper provisioning and that it has plenty of ammunition in the shape of good red blood, he will be able to overcome the enemy in these germs of disease." Every healthy man has five million red blood corpuscles to every square millimeter of blood. The best tonic for increasing the red blood corpuscles and building up healthy tissue is no doubt Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine has been on the market for over a third of a century and numbers its cures by the thousand.

Many popular patent medicines or tonics are made up largely of alcohol and will shrink the corpuscles of the blood and make them weaker for resistance. What is needed is an alterative extract, like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, that will assist the stomach in assimilating or taking from the food such elements as are required for the blood, also an alterative that will assist the activity of the liver and cause it to throw off the poisons in the blood. When we have accomplished this we have put the system in a fortified condition so strong that it can repel the germs of disease which we find everywhere—in the street-cars, the shops, the factories, the bedrooms, wherever many people congregate, or where sunlight and good air do not penetrate.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Neglected constipation means headache, heart-burn, sour stomach, foul taste in the mouth, biliousness, pimples, and palpitation of the heart. Constipation is promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One for mild cases, otherwise two.

BRONCHITIS

OFTEN THE SEED OF CONSUMPTION.

Druggist Robert R. Bellamy Tells People of Wilmington Quickest Means to Cure it.

For years cod liver oil has been known to possess remarkable curative and healing properties for throat, bronchial and lung troubles, but, as a famous physician has said, on account of the grease it contains, it has been difficult for people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly settled disease.

"Now, however," said Mr. Bellamy we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and there is no limit to the amount any person can take into their system to overcome disease. Here are two letters that have just come to our attention:

"Mrs. Louisa Stover of Elkhart, Ind., writes: 'For a long time I suffered with bronchial trouble and feared consumption. I could not seem to get any relief from cough medicines, old forms of cod liver oil or emulsions. I coughed badly, and my chest was sore and irritated. Vinol has healed the soreness and stopped the cough and has strengthened and invigorated my whole system.'

"Mrs. John Hoskins, Bangor, Penn., writes that Vinol cured her son of bronchitis, from which he had suffered for year after everything else had failed.

"We ask every person in Wilmington suffering from chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, or who need an invigorator and strength-creating medicine, to try Vinol on our guarantee to return the money if it fails." Robert R. Bellamy, druggist.

TWINKLINGS

— Foreigner—What is the significance of the eagle that is stamped on American money? United States Citizen—It is the emblem of its swift flight.—Detroit Free Press.

— "So you reside in New York City," said the Londoner. "Yes," replied the American tourist; "in the suburbs." "Ah! in California or Massachusetts, perhaps."—Philadelphia Press.

— Mrs. Smith—What makes you look so tired, dear; didn't you sleep well? Mr. Smith—Yes; but I dreamed all night that I was President Roosevelt shaking hands after election.—Detroit Free Press.

— "Certainly," observed the doctor, in reply to a question, "tight lacing, habitually practiced, often causes red noses." "But light tasting, habitually practiced, causes more of them," replied the professor.—Chicago Tribune.

— Nordy—We've got our church choir screened off so as not to be seen from the auditorium at all. Butts—Ah, a choir invisible, eh? Nordy—Yes; but not inaudible. You can still hear 'em quarreling.—Houston Chronicle.

— Lawyer—You want a divorce, do you? For what reason, may I ask? It will have to be stated in the application. Charming Soubrette—I find I have married the wrong man. Isn't that reason enough?—Chicago Tribune.

— "Now, me good man," said a pompous stranger, who had signed "Viscount Hardcastle, London," on the register, "what are your terms here?" "Cash in advance," replied the shrewd hotel clerk, promptly. —Des Moines News.

— Giffle—Russia has not the same calendar as the rest of the world. Its dates are always twelve days behind. Spinks—Well, I don't suppose they mind the dates keeping behind so long as the army keeps ahead.—Houston Chronicle.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an advertisement of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50 cents, at R. R. JINGLES AND JESTS.

What Happened.

She pressed her ruby lips to his
In one ecstatic kiss;
They seemed at peace with all the world,
Enrapt in holy bliss;
But, with the speculation o'er,
It was not hard to find
That, though she took her lips away,
The ruby stayed behind!
—Smart Set.

Positively Brutal.

She—Just see how much your little wife loves you. She made this cake for you all by herself.

He—Yes, darling, and now if you will eat it all by yourself I shall possess indisputable proof of your devotion.—Chicago News.

Moral—Keep Quiet.

An old crow sat on a hickory limb,
Moaning he caws his eyes were dimb;
A hunter heard
The noisy beard
And straightway made a corpse of himb.
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Same Girl.

Young Husband—When I used to kiss you, you slapped me.

Young Wife—Well, you won't get slapped now unless you forget to kiss me.—New York Weekly.

The Insecure Season.

The time draws near when no one knows
Just when to shake his winter clothes,
For if you wear 'em you feel bad,
And if you don't you wish you had.
—Washington Star.

Their Privilege.

"There's Mrs. Brown wearing the same gown she wore last year."

"Yes, but the Browns are so rich that they can afford to be eccentric."—San Francisco Examiner.

Nervy Indeed.

"The folks who tantalize me most," exclaimed the charming miss,
"Are men who call and have the nerve to ask me for a kiss."
—Cincinnati Post.

Sure Thing.

Miles—Last night I dreamed that I was wealthy. What's that a sign of?

Giles—It's a sign that you awoke and found your pipe had gone out.—Chicago News.

And Several "Extras."

"May I print a kiss on your lips?" I said,
And she nodded her sweet permission;
So we went to press, and I rather guess
We printed a full edition.
—Tit-Bits.

Harder Than Flint.

Dashaway—You don't mean to say she jilted you?

Cleverton—She did, old man. That girl has the heart of a motorman.—Life.

REACHING THE SPOT.

It Can Be Done, So Scores of Wilmington Citizens Say.

To cure an aching back,
The pains of rheumatism,
The tired-out feelings,
You must reach the spot—get at the cause.
In most cases 'tis the kidneys.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front street and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and side which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt a valuable remedy for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever and Constipation all yield to this perfect pill. Only 25c, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The cotton market opened easy at a decline of two to four points, or about as were due on easier cables. Weather south was favorable and there were further reports of free offering of spots by the South. Sentiment in local professional circles seemed against the market and some of the large room traders were evidently trying to force further declines. But there was also considerable covering by smaller shorts at the lower level and for over Sunday and the market following the call ruled fairly steady with prices giving ground very slowly. Business was quiet. Receipts at the ports to-day 50,776 bales against 56,182 last week and 66,368 last year. For the week 370,000 bales against 381,086 last week and 377,693 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 11,075 against 14,160 last year and at Houston 9,384 bales against 11,422 last year.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Cotton—The market was dull at 10.00c; net receipts 150 bales; gross receipts — bales; stock — bales.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Argentine advices claiming that there will be a mammoth crop in that country, were partly responsible for a break of over 2 cents a bushel in wheat prices here to-day. Continued heavy movement of the wheat crop in the northwest was an additional bearish factor. At the close December was down 2½c, May was off 2½ to 2¾c. December corn shows a loss of 1½c. Oats are off ¼ of a cent and provisions 2½ to 12½c.

Have You THESE SYMPTOMS?

There's Danger Ahead.

If you have sharpe pains across the small of the back, if there is any irregularity in the urine, if it is scanty or profuse, or difficult to retain, then your kidneys are out of order and should be given prompt attention. There is no disease so surely fatal if neglected. Diseases of the bladder, such as inflammation, gravel or stone in the bladder, diabetes, and finally uremic poisoning, usually begin in a very slight way at first, often causing no particular inconvenience.

Stuart's Gin and Buchu is a reliable remedy for any form of kidney and bladder diseases. It has been given the severest tests for thirty years, and has never failed to relieve the worst case and stay the fatal progress of the disease. If you have the slightest symptom of this disease, you should lose no time in beginning the use of this remedy. One bottle will convince you of the great benefit it will render. Stuart's Juniper and Buchu Tablets is the same remedy in tablet form for those who prefer it in that shape.

Samples Free to All.

You are invited to send your name and address at once for a free trial sample of this great remedy, together with testimonials and full information. Full size bottles $1 at all drug stores. Address Stuart Drug Co., 68 Wall street, Atlanta, Ga.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Durham Herald: The leaders got together all right, but the voters were allowed to scatter.

— Salisbury Sun: By the way, it's a good time also to be glad that Governor Aycock wasn't put on that Presidential ticket.

— Josiah Landis, a farmer residing near Fulp, in Forsyth county, was found dead in the woods near his home Tuesday afternoon. Excessive drinking and exposure are given as the causes of his death.

— Governor Charles B. Aycock went to Statesville Saturday, where he delivered an educational address. This will be absoutely the last speech for education while he is Governor of North Carolina, so Gov. Aycock informs the Raleigh Post.

— Charlotte Chronicle: Why not give the Chinaman a little encouragement about social equality, equal educational advantages, the open door of hope and other sentimentalities? Why thrust everything upon the colored brother? And lo! the poor Indian. How lonesome he is nowadays for a little sympathy.

— Charlotte Observer, Nov. 19: It is interesting to note that the two new cars just received by the 4C's were made by the Southern Car Company, at High Point. They make a fine appearance, are slightly wider than the old cars and have new facilities which appear to be very commendable. It is gratifying that the Charlotte company and the High Point concern should have made this deal.

— Application has been made for a charter for a new knitting mill, to be established in Salem by some of the towns leading business men. Work on a building for the new concern which will be erected near the old ice house has already begun. This new mill is to be organized with a capitol stock of $20,000. It will manufacture all kinds of yarn goods including both hosiery and underwear.

— A dispatch from Asheville on Thursday says: Asheville officers have been notified to look out for and arrest of Mrs. Maria Justice, who is alleged to have forged and cashed a cheeck at Waynesville last Friday to the amount of $200. The woman is said to have forged the check on the bank of Waynesville and secured the money from a firm of that place. The forgery was not discovered until the check was paid yesterday. Mrs. Justice is well known here and was in Asheville Tuesday, but has since left.

— Raleigh Post, Nov. 18: There are 95 Confederate veterans in the Soldiers Home here and not one of the number is confined to his room by sickness. This announcement, when it is remembered that the veterans range in age from 56 to 96 years and some of them came to the Home invalids, is both unusual and gratifying. Every one of the inmates is able to go to the dining room at each meal. This speaks volumes for the vigor of the veterans and the excellent management of the Home by Superintendent Brooks.

— Statesville Landmark: Dr. T. E. Anderson was hailed by an old colored citizen a few days ago, who has a child that is subject to fits. "Doctor, is you got any of dat rope what dey hung dat nigger wid las' fall?" anxiously queried the old darkey. Dr. Anderson was not wearing any of that particular rope, nor did he happen to know where any might be procured, but he was curious to know to what purpose the darkey wanted to put it, and it developed that that particular rope had the peculiar property of curing fits, could a piece of it be tied around the child's neck.

— Washington correspondence of Raleigh Post: A North Carolinian will have charge of the inauguration ceremonies, when Mr. Roosevelt is inducted into office, March 4th next. Charles C. Glover, president of the Riggs National Bank, of this city, is the man whom the President and Chairman Cortelyou have selected far the honor. Mr. Glover was born in Macon county, N. C., fifty-eight years ago, and came to Washington when he was only eight years old. He is president of the leading and wealthiest bank in Washington, which is considered one of the foremost financial institutions in America. He is also one of the most successful and useful citizens of the national capital. His selection as chairman of the inaugural committee is a very popular one.

— A dispatch from Newbern on Friday says: A wreck occurred on the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad this morning to the second section of Forepaugh & Sells Bro's. circus, which left here at midnight en route to Greenville. The wreck occurred at Hyman's Siding, six miles from this city, and the cause is not clearly known, but it is thought to have been due either to the track spreading at the switch or a heavily laden car breaking in the middle. Two cars were derailed, but no person nor any of the animals were hurt. The road was blocked for 10 hours and it was nearly noon to day before the last section could leave this city. The show was billed for Greenville today, but owing to the accident they were compelled to cancel the date. The circus will close the season at Tarboro Saturday, where it will be sold at auction to settle up the estate of the late Sells' brothers.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck, and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from throat and lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Dimensions of Noah's Ark.

"Within recent years," says the editor of the Syren and Shipping, "the general dimensions of the ark have been closely followed by cargo steamship builders for decades and the American great lakes service. According to the Bible, the ark was 480 feet long, 80 feet wide and 48 feet deep. Her tonnage was 11,413, and she had plenty of room for pairs of all the distinct species of animals that are classed by Buffon—244—and she could have accommodated a thousand persons and then have plenty of room for the storage of supplies. In the seventeenth century Peter Jansen, a Hollander, built a vessel of the exact proportions of the ark, and she was successful, as records of the times show, in making money for her owners. Noah, 'the father of naval architecture,' is held in profound respect by naval architects of today, who know how immeasurably the Phœnicians, Greeks and Romans and all other shipbuilders fell short of the excellence of the type of the ark as a commodious, safe and economical vessel."

Heels Half a Yard High.

The streets of the old city of Venice were often extremely thick in mud, in spite of the great sewers which dated from the tenth century. Even now the thoroughfares between the Piazza and Rialto are sometimes sufficiently bad. We are writing of the time when the population was nearly five times what it now is, and when Venetian trade was at its zenith. Well, to combat this mud the ladies took to high heeled shoes.

As the mud grew worse the heels became taller and taller until at length they were half a yard high and as difficult to control as a pair of stilts without handles. The consequence was that a lady in full dress, obliged to walk but a few yards, had to be supported on both sides. This was a task for the black pages or for the lovers, who had at that time become a very conventional part of Venetian society.

Some Misnamed Drugs.

Some misnomers of the drug store: Oil of vitrol is not an oil. Copperas is an iron salt and contains no copper. Salts of lemon has nothing to do with a lemon, but it is a salt of the extremely poisonous oxalic acid. Soda water contains no soda. Sulphuric ether contains no sulphur. Sugar of lead has nothing to do with lead, nor has cream of tartar anything to do with cream. Oxygen means the "acid generator," but hydrogen is really the essential element, and many acids contain oxygen. German silver contains no silver, and blacklead contains no lead. Berberine is usually made from hodrastis canadensis. Worniseed is unexpanded flower buds. Milk of lime has no milk. Quicksilver is purely mercury. Oil of origanum is made from thyme and not from origanum.

Genius In the Hat.

You seldom will find a brainy man with a round head. The head that contains lots of brains either is very long from front to back or else irregular. You can learn something of a man's mental ability by the hat he wears. If his head is so bumpy that it seems as if he never could get a hat to fit him he probably is a genius or an eccentric in some particular line. If his head is long from front to back he is a clear thinker and keen as a razor. So if your hat costs more money than your friend's hat does and you are harder to fit be consoled by considering that your brain is worth more.—Chicago Journal.

Queer Anatomy.

Curious ideas about anatomy prevail in the press. It was stated the other day that a man was "shot in the ticket office." Another paper says a man was "shot in the suburbs," "He kissed her passionately upon her reappearance," "She whipped him upon his return," "He kissed her back," "Mr. Jones walked in upon her invitation," "She seated herself upon his entering," "We thought she sat down upon her being asked," "She fainted upon his departure."

Melody and Music.

Melody was the beginning and ever will be the essence of music through all ages. The Greeks based their melody on the tetrachord system, which they may have copied from the natural melody in human speech. Gregorian chants, Protestant hymn tunes, many national melodies and other musical themes are based on natural melody in human speech.

Pilgrims and Puritans.

The pilgrims were a body of English nonconformists who emigrated from Holland and settled Plymouth colony in 1620. The Puritans were a body of nonseparatist religious reformers from England who in 1629-30 founded and settled the Massachusetts Bay colony. The two bodies united in 1692 under the name of Massachusetts.

Deacon and Elder.

Morrison—What is the matter, Dumley? You look terribly mystified. Dumley—No wonder. I was talking with Jinkins just now. We were speaking of the Joneses, and he said that the elder was the younger and the deacon the elder. I can't get at the rights of the thing to save me.—Boston Transcript.

No Fool.

"A least I ain not a fool," he said, "for you know 'a fool and his money are soon parted,' a fact which leads naturally to the inference that the fool must have money, and I never had any."—Chicago Post.

Charity.

It is simply wonderful the charity we would give and the sympathy we feel for suffering ones at a distance, but remain heedless of the wants of those who are our neighbors.—Concord Patriot.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. WINTER'S APPROACH

A day of sunshine now and then, but these frosty mornings admonish us that sable Winter is almost here. That suggests the comforts and satisfaction of one of our modern heaters. We have them this year of every shape and kind—just the one to suit. Or, perhaps, it's a cooking stove or range. We have those too. And the point we are making for them all is that they furnish an even maximum of heat with the greatest economy of fuel.

We are yours just now for stoves and ranges, but all the time for hardware and agricultural implements. Let us serve you.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, Nov. 20.

A HOMICIDE IN CHICAGO.

Man Found Dead in an Automobile—Believed to Have Been Shot by Bank Robbers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Shot dead in an automobile by bank robbers, whose plot the victim of the tragedy had discovered and whose plans he had frustrated, is one explanation of the mysterious death of Wm. Bate, a chauffeur whose corpse and machine were found on a lonely road this morning. The theory was advanced by Bates' employer after an investigation of the circumstances. The idea is that the men who hired the automobile were bank robbers and contemplated a raid on a bank in some small town.

The automobile and the corpse were discovered by a farmer. The machine was banked up on one side of the road and the wheels were blocked with a timber to keep the car from rolling down an incline into a ditch. There was a bullet wound in the back of Bates' head and his body was hanging over the side of the automobile.

That Bate did not commit suicide, but was shot down by an assassin is indicated by the finding of an empty cartridge shell in the tongue of the automobile.

Two letters found on the person of the dead man offered a suggestion that Bate's death might have been the result of a love affair. One of the letters read:

"Dear Bate: I understand that you have won the love of Bertha, and I presume that you have no further use for me. I hope my future love will be successful. Of course, it is pretty hard on me, but I will let the matter drop and say no more. With love, ROSE L.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Bate were made more puzzling to-night by the report that a woman was in the automobile a short time before Bate is believed to have been killed. John Seller, a farmer, gave this information to the police late to-night. Seller said he could hear voices in a vehement dispute, among them that of a woman.

THE MERCHANT MARINE.

Sub-Committee of the National Commission in Session at Newport News.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Nov. 19.—The sub-committee of the National Merchant Marine Commission was in session here to day. Mr. Thomas Martin presided. Superintendent W. A. Post, of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, appeared before the committee. Replying to questions put by the members of the body, Mr. Post said 7,800 men were on the pay rolls at the present time and that the pay rolls amounted to from $85,000 to $90,000. The variation was due to over-time work. The chairman asked that if favorable legislation was enacted at the end of twelve months time how many ships could be turned out here annually. Mr. Post said ten ships of 7,000 tons capacity. They could deliver three the first year, and one a month thereafter. He said this yard should employ 10,000, as there were facilities for this number. He said that all of the shipyards in the country could turn out from six to seven ships the first year, and as the new men that would have to be taken on became experienced this number would be almost double.

ATTACKED BY MOSQUITOES

French Steamship Arrived at Norfolk With Officers and Crew Disabled.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 19.—The French steamship Provincia arrived here to-day from Sabine Pass, Texas, for Hamburg, with Captain Courtade disabled, her first mate so ill he was sent to a hospital, and several of her crew suffering severely on account of an encounter with a huge swarm of mosquitoes which settled upon the Provincias while the ship was in the Gulf of Mexico. Captain Courtade's right arm is useless and Mate Vincentelle, in addition to hundreds of mosquito bites is suffering from a bronchial disorder. The crew of the ship fought the insects for hours with smoke and improvised fans, and almost every man on the boat has a swollen face and lacerated arms.

TOM WATSON STILL TALKING.

Proposes to Campaign Actively During the Next Four Years.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MACON, GA., Nov. 19 — Thomas E. Watson, defeated candidate of the People's Party for President, spoke to-day at his home, Thomson, Georgia. He said that he proposed to campaign actively during the next four years, and declared a "fight to the finish."

Mr. Watson made bitter attacks on Thomas Taggart and Patrick McCarren. He ridiculed Judge Parker at length, declaring that the Democratic candidates' campaign had begun and closed with a telegram.

Mr. Watson prophesied that the Populists would organize the farmers of the South and West, and ultimately sweep the country.

A BIG BLAZE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Missouri State Building on Exposition Grounds Destroyed by Fire Yesterday.

CASUALTIES AMONG FIREMEN

One Man Killed and Several Others Injured—The Property Loss Cannot be Estimated—Many Valuable Paintings Destroyed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—The Missouri State building at the World's Fair was destroyed by fire early this evening, resulting from the explosion of a hot water heater in the basement.

Instantly the flames shot up through the rotunda and the northwing and cupola were a solid mass of flames within ten minutes after the explosion. The loss cannot be estimated accurately owing the temporary construction material which has no salvage value. The principal loss is in the contents of the building. The building cost $145,000 and in it were $75,000 worth of furnishing, the most valuable of which were portraits of all former Missouri governors and supreme judges. These cannot be replaced.

The fire was the most spectacular that has occurred in St. Louis in years. Thousands of persons hurried from all portions of the grounds, attracted by the sheet of flame that spurted from the top of the cupolas. Sparks were carried over the United States government building and as far northwest as the Liberal Arts palace. Bucket brigades were hurried to the roofs of these buildings to prevent ignition.

Meantime, from all quarters of the grounds, the fire departments had responded and were augmented by apparatus from the city department. Salvage corps were formed by both Jefferson Guards and World's Fair visitors and as much property as could be secured within a few moments was carried into the Louisiana State pavilion adjacent.

Mrs. Belle Hall Small, of Sedalia, Mo., one of the State hostesses, rushed into her apartments in the building to secure some valuables. A fireman followed her into the smoke and found her lying on the floor overcome. Placing a wet handkerchief over her face he carried her into the open air, where she was revived.

J. P. Nixon, of Lebanon, Mo., an attache of the building, was overcome by smoke while carrying some property out of doors. He also was rescued by a fireman and carried in an unconscious condition to the Wisconsin building where he was revived.

While responding to the alarm of fire Captain Edward O'Neill, of World's Fair Truck No. 4, was seriously hurt, George Garbenbeach was killed, and Jeremiah Fagin of the same company was probably fatally injured. It was necessary for the truck to pass through the mining gulch, and owing to the darkness the horses left the road. They separated when approaching a large tree, the pole striking the obstruction with terrific force, upsetting the truck and hurling the crew in every direction.

After the flames were under control and had been sufficiently extinguished to permit the firemen to enter the building, the south wall fell without warning and buried Lloyd Randolph, driver of city engine No. 28, and Frank O'Connor, of city truck No. 9. Several others only escaped by a small margin.

Several streams of water were instantly directed upon the debris covering the men and they were rescued before the fire spread to where they were entombed. They were badly bruised and it is thought Randolph is fatally injured.

NAVAL ESTIMATES

Aggregate $114,530,638 for the Fiscal Year Ending June, 1906.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The naval estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, aggregate $114,530,638, an increase of $17,373,448 over the last appropriation.

The following are the principal items in the estimates: Pay of the navy, $30,000,000; pay, miscellaneous, $800,000; bureau of navigation, $1,779,750; bureau of ordnance, $5,103,506; bureau of equipment, $4,724,398; bureau of yards and docks, $991,585; public works, bureau of yards and docks, $6,764,030; public works, secretary of the navy (naval academy) $1,945,000; bureau of supplies and accounts, $5,883,932; bureau of construction and repair, $8,410,024 bureau of steam engineering, $4,323,720; marine corps paymaster, $3,593,596; quartermaster, $2,412,296.

Following are the total estimates under the head of "increase of the navy," construction and machinery, $30,410,883; armor and armament, $14,000,000; equipment, $845,000. These involve an increase of $13,428,973 over the last appropriation.

NAN PATTERSON'S TRIAL.

A Full Jury Selected and the Court Adjourned Until Monday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Further delays in the trial of Nan Patterson, the show girl who is charged with causing the death of Caesar Young, a wealthy horseman, was indicated in rumors which were prevalent around the Criminal Court building to-day. A full jury had been selected when court adjourned last night and it was thought that the real work of the trial would be begun promptly Monday morning. To-day, however, a story became current that several changes would be made in the jury before the case would proceed.

Elwood Hendricks, the foreman, asked the court yesterday to excuse him from duty on the ground that a member of his family was seriously ill. It was said that several other jurors also had asked to be dismissed for private reasons. These requests will be considered by the court when the trial is resumed Monday.

Fire During a Performance at an Opera House in Westbrook, Me.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WESTBROOK, ME., Nov. 19.—Fire broke out during a performance at Speir's Opera House to-night, and before it could be controlled the building was gutted. The flames shut off escape by way of the main entrance, but an exit was found at the rear for the 200 people present. Several people were injured, but none it is thought dangerously.

William Campbell Preston Breckenridge died at Lexington, Ky., last night from a stroke of paralysis sustained Wednesday. He had been gradually sinking for twenty-four hours.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CONTEST

Harvard Defeated by Yale—Score 12 to 0. Witnessed by 32,000 Spectators. Other Games Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 18.—Yale earned a victory which was in every way satisfactory to her friends, over her old-time rival, Harvard, in the presence of over 32,000 spectators, on Yale field this afternoon, the final score being 12 to 0, the same as that in her victory over Princeton a week ago. The game was one in which the men in blue proved the superiors of a brawnier set of opponents both in the art of offence and defence; in the first place through better team work with a few simple formations, and in the second instance, through her ability to stop or break up any play whether of a plunging character against her line or used as a subterfuge to turn her flanks. Yale was not called upon to use a formation which had not been shown in her games of the entire season and at no time was there any doubt of the outcome.

As the Yale men fought their way to Harvard's goal line, they knew they were bound to win, and the courage which came with this knowledge gave them more power on the attack. Harvard, on the other hand, placed some reliance on plays which were intended to gain ground by runs around the end, and in nearly every instance these failed. The precision with which Yale moved her plays all the time, united action of her backs with the linesmen, stamped Captain Hogan's team as one of the most remarkable which ever went on a field to uphold the glory of the blue. To Harvard, however, which sent here a team of unknown quality, must be given the credit of playing a wonderful game on the defence and of showing at times, in the second half, flashes of inherent brilliancy on the offence.

The game itself as a whole was somewhat tedious to the immense throng of spectators. It was almost devoid of sensational or spectacular plays and its one brilliant incident was the blocking of Sperry's punt in the second half which brought Yale's second touch down. Even this was better appreciated by football men themselves than the spectators, for it was a truly remarkable thing that Kinney and Trip should break through Harvard's line, for the punter to block the ball and that Bloomer, another tackle, should get it many yards behind Harvard's lines. It illustrated the point that stands out prominently that Yale knew how to play and to take advantage of every chance to get the ball when Harvard was in the offensive.

The crowd at Yale field was probably the largest which has ever seen a football game in this country.

IRISH NATIONALISTS.

Party on the Verge of a Serious Split Because of Disagreement.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Irish Nationalist party is on the verge of a serious split within its own ranks. Unless some amicable arrangement can quickly be arrived at, Messrs. Dillon and Sexton, with their personal following, will secede from the leadership of John Redmond.

In this event Mr. Redmond will have the aggressive support of William O'Brien, over whom a dispute has arisen. It is stated on good authority that Mr. Redmond has been told that unless he withdraws his support from Mr. O'Brien, secession will result. No definite conclusion has been reached, but it is understood that Mr. Redmond prefers to throw in his lot with Mr. O'Brien.

The present internal crisis is the result of the gradual increasing disagreement over the action instigated by Mr. O'Brien and carried out by Mr. Redmond in their famous land purchase conference with the Irish landlords.

CANAL COMMISSION.

President May Appoint Senator Cockrell to Succeed Col. Hecker.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—While no announcement has been made regarding the President's action in the selection of a man to succeed Col. Frank J. Hecker, on the isthmian canal commission, it is known that he is considering seriously the appointment of Senator Francis M. Cockrell, of Missouri, to the vacancy. The President holds Senator Cockrell in high esteem, personally and officially, and feels that the services of a man of his character and ability should not be lost to the government. If the Senator should conclude that he does not care to undertake the work of the canal commission, it is certain the President will give him some congenial position befitting his character and services.

TWELVE MEN ARRESTED.

Charged With Interfering With Homesteaders on U. S. Lands.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSON, MISS, Nov. 19.—Twelve white men accused of being whitecappers and interfering with homesteaders on United States lands were brought here to-day by a United States deputy marshal under indictments found by the Federal grand jury. The men were placed under $2,000 bondeach for their appearance at the next term of court. The grand jury returned eighteen indictments for alleged unlawful interference with United States homesteaders.

DRANK POISON.

Miss Gesterling's Dramatic Suicide at a Hotel in Chicago.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Miss E. Gesterling, of Denver, Colo., killed herself this afternoon in her apartments in the Hotel Vendome by drinking a cup of poison. At the same time the body of C. A. Parker, of Cincinnati, a friend of Miss Gesterling, was being interred in St. Louis, and it is thought that she planned to end her life at the hour when the body of her friend was lowered into the grave.

BATTLE IN FULL SWING AT MUKDEN.

The Russian Troops, According to General Kuropatkin, Are Pressing Japanese Left.

JAPS' COUNTER MOVEMENT.

Opened Artillery Fire on the Russian Right—Attempted an Advance at Lone Tree Hill, But Repulsed With Heavy Casualties.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—It is reported that a battle between the two armies below Mukden is in full swing. The War Office does not confirm the rumor, though it admits that the activity all along the line indicates that both armies are ready. The Russians, according to General Kuropatkin's report, are pressing the Japanese left, while a very significant movement of the Japanese is reported on Sintsintain, 45 miles east of Mukden.

A special correspondent, telegraphing under last night's date, says the battle has begun and that the thunder of the guns is unceasing.

General Sakharoff, under date of Nov. 18th, reports a reconnoissance on a large scale Nov. 17th in the direction of Malchai and Chitaliae, on the right bank of the Hun river. The Japanese showed some resistance but were dislodged from these villages and from the bridges across the Hun. At daybreak the same day the Japanese repulsed a squadron of Cossacks thirty miles south of Sunsyntyn.

General Attack by Japs.

MUKDEN, Nov. 18, via Pekin, Nov. 19.—A severe artillery fire was opened on the Russian right, commencing at daylight to-day and lasting for several hours. There was also intermittent firing during the day. The Russians are expecting a general attack on the part of the Japanese.

Late on November 17th the Japanese opposite Poutiloff Hill (Pine Tree Hill) attempted an advance under the cover of artillery and reached a small village between the positions, but according to accounts from the field brought by headquarters couriers they were repulsed with large casualties.

Attack on Port Arthur.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 19.—The Japanese resumed their attacks on Port Arthur on November 17th making a furious assault which resulted in their occupation of underground chambers in important positions.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—General Stoessel, in a dispatch to the Emperor dated November 2, says:

"I am happy to report to your majesty that all the assaults from October 25th to November 2nd were repulsed by your heroic troops. The most desperate assault occurred October 30th, but thanks to the bayonets of the reserves and the bravery of the volunteer sharpshooters the enemy was repulsed at all points. The Japanese did not return to their attack the same day and left a great number of dead unlnterred upon the field.

"On October 31st the enemy twice assaulted, but each time was repulsed at the point of the bayonet and by hand grenades. Several of our officers and men were wounded.

"The spirit of the troops is excellent. It is difficult to establish any distinction as regards bravery. All are heroes. The bombardment of the fortress continues without intermission."

General Stoessel praises the work of the ambulance and hospital corps, mentions a number of officers for distinguished bravery and concludes: "The Japanese losses were enormous. I estimate them at 10,000."

Report Contradicted.

MUKDEN, Nov. 19.— The position at the front is unchanged.

Positive information received here contradicts previous reports and says that the Japanese have decided not to begin a serious operation on Mukden before there is a definite result at Port Arthur—either the fall of the fortress or a necessity for the Japanese to bring up reinforcements from Japan and re-commence the arduous work of the seige. Until then they intend to confine themselves merely to holding the Russians in check.

Important Political Movement.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—The meeting of representatives of Zemstvos, which had been looked forward to with so much hope, was held this afternoon at a private residence in this city, but at the last moment the government withdrew the official auspices under which it was to be held, because the representatives declined to adhere to the original purpose of the conference. A hundred earnest men, included among whom were some of the most prominent figures in Russia, therefore met and discussed a carefully prepared memorandum, practically embodying a recommendation for a national representative body to have a share in the government. This memorandum will be presented to Emperor Nicholas.

Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, the minister of the interior, guaranteed the meeting protection from police interference, but secrecy was maintained as to the place of meeting and this effectually prevented demonstrations which had been announced would be made by students.

The memorandum includes ten sections, of which seven were endorsed at to-day's meeting. The remainder, it is expected, will be approved at a meeting to be held to-morrow. The document, which is bound to hold a conspicious place in Russian history, declares that the abnormal conditions in Russia are the result of the complete estrangement of the government and people, due to the absence of essential requisite mutual confidence. It also declares that the conditions necessitate freedom of conscience, speech and press and of meeting and assertion, and assert that the peasants must be placed on an equality with the other classes.

The articles still unacted upon declare that it is imperatively necessary that there be national representation based on an elective principle for the settlement of questions between the government and the people.

Kuropatkin's Report.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—General Kuropatkin in a dispatch dated Nov. 17th reports that Nov. 16th and 17th passed quietly. He inspected the positions and troops which in places are 400 paces distant from the Japanese. He adds that the nights are cold but that overcoats have arrived, the men are comfortable, supplies are ample and the general condition of the troops is excellent.

The city of Kiel was in holiday attire yesterday in honor of Emperor William, who was present at the swearing in of naval recruits and the launching of a battleship which was christened "Deutschland." Chancellor Von Buelow in a speech emphasized the fact that the increase in the strength of the German fleet did not mean a challenge to any one.

ARCHBISHOP CHAPELLE

Denies Statement from Rome That He Has Been Relieved from Apostolic Duties in Cuba and Porto Rico.

By Cable to the Morning Star

ROME, Nov. 19.—Partly to satisfy the wishes of Archbishop Chapelle, of New Orleans, the apostolic delegate for Cuba and Porto Rico, and partly because of complaints received from the archdiocese of New Orleans, owing to his unavoidable absence, the Vatican may soon relieve the archbishop from the apostolic delegation in the Antilles, in order that he may devote his entire time to his archdiocese. It is asserted that most probably Monsignor Broderick, auxilliary bishop of Havana, will not return to Cuba.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Archbishop Chapelle was shown the Associated Press dispatch from Rome, implying that he would be relieved from his apostolic duties in Porto Rico and Cuba in order to devote his whole time to the duties of the archbishopric of New Orleans, Mgs. Chapelle said:

"There is no foundation whatever for this report. I have just returned from Rome. No complaint has ever reached me of dissatisfaction because of my absence from time to time in the Antilles, and my people have sent no such reports to the throne in Rome. There is to be no change of my jurisdiction. If there was to be, I should know it, since I was at the Vatican only a few weeks ago.

MOTOR CAR ACCIDENTS.

Chauffeur for Anna Held, the Actress, Arrested by the Police of Greater New York

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Through the arrest of George Mack, chauffeur for Anna Held, the actress, the mystery surrounding the two motor car accidents in Pelham parkway Friday morning, in one of which Jacob Clemons was thrown from his wagon and almost killed, has been cleared. Clemons was found by the side of the road wrapped up in a blanket. He had been struck by Ann Held's motor car, according to the police, and was found later by the relief party sent out to bring home the persons who were in the wrecked motor car belonging to Mrs. Ellis, of this city. Mack was arrested at his home here to-day. He said that he had been at a dinner to chauffeurs at Larchmont, and was hurrying to Manhattan with a single woman passenger whose identity he refused to divulge.

He admitted, the police say, that he was speeding the machine at the rate of forty miles an hour and that when near the Morris Park race track he struck something, but in the darkness could not see what the object was and continued on his way.

COLORADO ELECTION.

Three Election Officers Fined and Sentenced to Jail at Denver.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DENVER, COLO., Nov. 19.—Thomas Sheperdson, Peter Miller and Michael Dowd, election officers, were to-day adjudged guilty by the Supreme Court of substituting ballots and swearing in an election clerk wrongfully at the recent election. Sheperdson and Miller were fined $1,000 each and sentenced to jail for one year. Dowd was fined $350 and sentenced to jail for sixty days. The lights were extinguished at the polling place where the men were officers after the polls closed and during this period, it is alleged, the ballots were changed.

FIRE AT EUFAULA, ALA.

Business Block Destroyed—Losses Estimated at About $110,000.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

EUFAULA, ALA., Nov. 19.—The entire Harding block in Eufaula's business center was totally destroyed by fire to-night. The flames originated in the Pecree Furniture Company building. With almost incredible rapidity they spread and in the course of a few minutes the entire block was a seething mass of flames. The fire department responded quickly to a general alarm, but it was quickly seen that it was impossible to save more than a small structure at the lower end of the block. The losses are estimated at about $110,000. Half of this sum is said to be covered by insurance.

Don't Take Chances With Kidney Troublse,

Dizziness, pains in the back, irregularities of the urine, and other seemingly slight symptoms, should not be neglected, for they are warnings that the kidneys are out of order, and serious results are sure to follow if prompt and proper treatment is neglected.

There is no disease so dangerous or so sure to result fatally as diseases of the kidneys or bladder, when neglected and allowed to reach a serious stage. Because the disease causes slight inconvenience, many people are prone to pay no attention to the first warnings, and before they are aware of the danger, they are completely in the grasp of the disease. Diabetes, irritation of the bladder, gravel, uremic poisoning, are stages of the diseases which are to be dreaded.

The most reliable remedy, as has been proven by thirty years of tests in severe cases, is Stuart's Gin and Buchu. This remedy is the result of years of scientific research, and the great good derived from its use proves its value in every case. Below we can give a few extracts from the thousands of letters in our possession, showing the benefit which has been derived from its use:

a trial sample absolutely free.

"I have tried the free sample bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and it gave almost instant relief. Your remedy has done me more good than all the medicine I ever used, and I now feel no effects of the bladder trouble at all."—Brown Smith, Thomaston, Ga.

"One of my customers tried all the doctors here and a number of kidney medicines, and one bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu did him more good than all the treatment he ever took. It is a wonderful remedy."—J. H. Benham, Druggist, Rockport, Tex.

"I am now on the third bottle of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and am glad to say it is doing me much good."—John B. Wilkerson, Sandersville, Ga.

"I think your Stuart's Gin and Buchu has done me more good than anything I ever tried before."—Mrs. J. V. Roberts, Savannah, Ga.

"I have taken two bottles of Stuart's Gin and Buchu with highly satisfactory results, and believe that one more bottle will cure me."—D. P. Higgins, Oglethorpe, Ga.

"I suffered since childhood with bladder trouble. Was in bed three weeks, when I read of Stuart's Gin and Buchu, and after taking same three weeks I was well.—Mrs. Ida McElroy, Columbia, S. C.

Dante Rossetti's Practical Joker.

One day Howell picked up a treasure in the form of a piece of old blue Nankin. He invited a party of friends to come and admire it, and Rossetti surreptitiously carried it home with him and invited the same party to come and view an equally fine piece of china in his own possession. But Howell had his revenge. Guessing what had happened, he found his way to Rossetti's hiding place, took away the china and put another dish in its place. When the party assembled Rossetti was challenged to produce the china.

He returned to the dining room with the package and began to carefully remove the wrappings. As the dish became uncovered a curious puzzled expression came over his face, and when it was entirely exposed to view he stood still in blank astonishment. For a few moments he was silent; then his pent up feelings burst out in a wild cry:

"Confound it! See what the spirits have done!"

Every one rose to look at the dish. A dish it was certainly, but what a dish! Instead of the beautiful piece of Nankin that was expected there was only an old delft thing, cracked, chipped and discolored through the numerous bakings it had undergone.

One Sided Sport.

A London paper tells a story of a certain shortsighted sportsman. He was asked one morning by a fellow sojourner in a small hotel on the shores of Loch Carron what sport he had had. "Just seen a seal," he said. "Shot at it three times and missed it each time." At dinner, an hour later, he sat next to a man with a bandage round his head. "Accident?" he inquired. "Accident!" was the indignant response. "Attempted murder, you mean. I was having a bath about an hour ago when some lunatic fired at me three times from the shore and shot part of my ear off." "Wonder who it could have been!" murmured the sportsman, and then he changed the conversation.

A Story of Storey.

An English paper tells a little anecdote of the distinguished painter Storey in his capacity of teacher of perspective at the Royal academy: On one occasion Mr. Storey accepted an invitation to dine with the wealthy—and Philistine—father of one of his pupils. Over the undeniable port the by no means doting parent inquired how his son was getting on, and, although the kindliest of men, Mr. Storey could not bring himself to say much that was favorable. "Humph!" grunted the man of money. "Well, I hope he will turn out an artist, for I am quite sure he's not fit to be anything else."
